

I strongly support the New Jersey do not call legislation. While it is stronger than the Federal guidelines, the amount of calls that have been eliminated has been wonderful. We would average 10 to 12 calls a week before the NJ do not call list. Now we may get one a month. My time home with my family is dear to me and opening up the lines again would cause undue upset and disruption to our family.
Sincerely C Scharff